Food Lion Feeds Charitable Foundation Awards Grant to Loudoun Hunger Relief

Leesburg, VA; Loudoun Hunger Relief has received $10,000 from the Food Lion Feeds Charitable Foundation to help nourish children and families during the summer months. The Summers Without Hunger grant supports community feeding partners by helping increase access to nutritious food, nutritional education and resources for children and families experiencing food insecurity.

"Summer should be a season of joy and growth for children, but for many families in Loudoun County, the break from school meals brings added worry," said Jennifer Montgomery, President & CEO of Loudoun Hunger Relief. "This generous support from the Food Lion Feeds Charitable Foundation ensures we can keep plates full and nourish our young neighbors when they need it most. We are deeply grateful for Food Lion Feeds' partnership and their shared commitment to feeding our community."

Founded in 1991, Loudoun Hunger Relief (LHR) is Loudoun County's primary emergency food pantry, serving neighbors in need with nutritious food, education, and community partnerships. LHR operates two pantries that include community service centers co-located with partner nonprofits to provide coordinated care for long-term stability. Supported by dedicated volunteers and donors, LHR remains committed to dignity, access, and ensuring every neighbor can thrive.

The Food Lion Feeds Charitable Foundation is committed to supporting families facing food insecurity across Food Lion's 10-state footprint. Established in 2001, the Foundation provides financial support for programs and organizations dedicated to feeding local neighbors in the communities it serves. Since its inception, the Foundation has awarded more than $25 million in grant funding to help nourish communities with fresh food.

About Loudoun Hunger Relief

Loudoun Hunger Relief, Loudoun's leader in emergency food assistance, has been serving the community since 1991. Last year, LHR provided 186,000 service instances and 2.5 million meals across the county. We serve 800 families every week. In addition to our pantry services, LHR operates satellite pantries and a regional produce hub in collaboration with local partners. To learn more, visit www.loudounhunger.org.
